New Arrivals

Hello Medical Students

Over this past summer, Clevelanders have become used to receiving good news. While the news of the RNC, the gay games, and the arrivals of LeBron James and Kevin Love to the Cavaliers have stolen the headlines, it is clear to all of us at Case Med that the formation of the Class of 2018 deserves to also be mentioned in the same breath. If you are a first year student (or anyone else for that matter) please let us know when your birthday is here, so that we can give you a shout out in a future newsletter. Speaking for the rest of the student body, we are all excited to have you here with us and to share our knowledge and experiences with you all.

On that note, your Committee of Student Representatives is having its first general body meeting next Tuesday, August 19th at 12:15 in room E-401. We would encourage you all to attend and learn more about what we do how you can make an impact on our school through the medical student government here at Case. We are also having food from Qdoba catered! If you are interested in attending, please let us know here.

If other student organizations are more intriguing to you, I would encourage you to attend the Student Activities Fair on Wednesday, August 27th from 1pm to 3pm in the Alice Lounge. It will be a great opportunity to learn more about the different student groups at Case Med and how you can become involved. Your CSR VP Nick Black will be emailing out more details about the event and how to register your student group for the fair.

As is the case with the start of any academic year, there are a plethora of opportunities available for you to contribute to our med school. Your CSR is working to make it as easy as possible to get involved, and if you have any questions or concerns about any particular student group (including your student government) please visit the CSR website at www.casemed.org and contact the student leader of the group or myself. Also, please do not hesitate to contact me about anything concerning student life, the curriculum, or our medical school in general. I will do my best to help answer your questions or find someone who can.

Good luck this upcoming year!
